

Ethanol Reviewer Educator & Entertainer

About Open Bottle Society

Open Bottle Society was Founded in 2014, since its emergence on Periscope and ChillLoverRadio it has become a prominent presence of ethanol exhibition. Whether it be reviewing ethanol, educating about ethanol or entertaining with innovative broadcasts, Open Bottle Society is introducing a new perspective to ethanol. We review rather than critique ethanol, because we know all pallets, taste bud, and preferences differ.

About The Founder Kilan "Key" Smith

A Las Vegas native, a Jack of many trades and master of most. Home brewer is the title he is currently working on. As a private chef, he has the ability to distinguish between flavors, and the imagination to try crazy concoctions. His smart humor and profound sense of family completes this man's great personality. Instead of belittling viewers with his knowledge, he answers and justifies all questions. Key personally acknowledges as many viewers and comments as he can.
